The cancellation deadlines for the round when an applicant was offered a seat for the first time and accepted will determine the refund amount in case of seat cancellation. This is regardless of whether (a) the seat offered and accepted for the first time was in a programme of highest preference of the applicant or, (b) there was an upgrade in a later round, to a seat in a programme of higher preference of the applicant.

Refund Illustration:

1. Suppose an applicant's program preferences are [A, B, C] in that order.
2. Suppose the applicant did not get a seat in Round 1.
3. Suppose the applicant gets a seat in Program B in Round 2 and accepts it. Then, cancellations dates and refund amounts of Round 2 will apply to the applicant.
4. Suppose the applicant gets an upgrade offer to Program A in Round 3 and accepts it. Still, the cancellations dates and refund amounts of Round 2 will continue to apply to the applicant.
5. In case the applicant cancels the seat, the refund amount is as mentioned for Round 2 (and not Round 3), as on the date of cancellation.

Note:

- The number of Rounds of admission that will be conducted is subject to the availability of seats.
- All deadlines are at 5.00 PM Indian Standard Time of the announced date.
Seat allocation is final after the last round. No upgrading is permitted even if there are unfilled seats.
- The institute reserves the right to conduct different rounds of seat allocation based on the available seats and the number of acceptances after a round.
- If a candidate fails to meet the eligibility criteria given on our PGEE website, the candidate becomes ineligible, and his/her admission will be canceled and the refund amount will be Rs. 10,000/- only.
